Brief History

Since 2008 the outreach program at Trivitt Memorial Anglican Church has supported the Adult, Handbell Choir and Youth Choir bringing Arts and Culture to the South Huron Community. The Adult Choir and Handbell Choir continued to grow to new standards and challenges in traditional and modern Choral Music attracting members from all over Huron County and surrounding areas. Each year several concerts would be performed by the choirs presenting varieties of programs otherwise would never have been heard in our Rural Area.

This year Trivitt Church discontinued the outreach program, the unknown now for the South Huron Community Choirs. The choir members made a decision to go on their own, to support themselves to become a non-profit charitable organization which is now hosted by Exeter United Church.

How are we going to support ourselves? - membership fee has been increased, fundraisers, sponsors, donations and grants
