Subject: Brandon Vanderwel

Over the past year and a half I have had the great pleasure of knowing Brandon and Destiny, I have come to know what a hard working caring individuals they are. I have personally worked with them and with these cats over the past year, they are incredibly caring and devoted to them. I have witnessed the security measures they helped put in place at Roaring Cat Retreat Safety is Brandon's first priority when it comes to his animals, not only for the protection of the public but for the safety and protection of his lions. These lions are so caring and affectionate, they truly love Brandon and Destiny. It is their hope to find a forever home for these amazing beautiful animals, somewhere that they will be happy, safe and cared for.
