8. Community Safety and Well-Being Plan

- On Thursday, March 17, 2022 at 9:00 am, a meeting was scheduled with Rebekah Msuya-Collison, General Manager of Corporate Services/Clerk, Jim Dietrich, South Huron Police Services Board Chair and Jo-Anne Fields, Secretary to discuss options of next steps in moving forward with the Community Safety and Well-Being Plan
- Brief overview of the meeting –
  - o We discussed identifying seniors as the proposed focus group
  - o We discussed perhaps coordinating some type of meeting (whether virtual/in-person or combination depending on the circumstances)
  - o The Plan will be discussed at an upcoming Police Services Board meeting to discuss whether the Board wants to proceed with an initiative, keep carrying the Plan until legislation is passed or give back to Council
  - o A list of sample questions for the Board to consider if it is decided to proceed on an outreach initiative
  - o We discussed whether the Board would proceed with any initiatives at this time as new legislation is expected and the other Municipalities have put their plans on hold at this time. We discussed that this is a Council initiative and that while the Board is monitoring the Plan on Council's behalf, a report to provide Council an update after a decision is made on moving forward and who will assume the lead on this initiative
- The Plan outlines seniors as one of the priority populations in Huron so an initiative with Seniors would fit. There are four priority areas listed in the Plan:
  1. Mental Health and Addictions
  2. Housing Stability and Homelessness
  3. Domestic and Family Violence
  4. Community Security
- Discussed that the 4th priority, Community Security may be a good fit for the South Huron Police Services Board
- Discussed areas/populations that the Board could reach out to, creating awareness and education surrounding concerns and issues

- Was suggested that a Board meeting could be scheduled at an outside venue – Grand Cove, Community Centre, High School
